INCIDENCE OF MALE LUTS IN US

• 16.5 MILLION MEN OVER 50

Suffer from

• LOWER URINARY TRACT SYMPTOMS (LUTS)

STATEMENT OF PROBLEM

PRIMARY CARE PHYSICIANS (PCP'S)

- PCP's DON'T HAVE EXPENSIVE URINE FLOW METERS
- TREATMENT BASED ON SUBJECTIVE PATIENT INPUT
- ONLY TREAT THE SYMPTOMS NOT THE CAUSE

UROLOGISTS:

- ARTIFICIAL SETTING
- 50% OF CLINIC TESTS ARE NONINTERPRETABLE
- 2 Weeks of wasted clinic time per year

STREAM DX: OUR STORY

- My idea in 2013 born out of clinical frustration Bioinnovate seeded with $10k 9/13
- StreamDx incorporated in 10/14: CEO, CTO, engineers
- 2/16/15 technology licensed from university
- Raised through TCIP /ENGINE ($65k), SEED Series x2 ($495k), USTAR TAP ($125k), SEED series 3 ongoing
- Selected for funding for NIH Phase II SBIR ($1.5M)

MY STORY

- Engineering interested fostered in fellowship
- 1 failed start-up, 3 founded total, StreamDx most successful

 Male Infertility/Reproductive Urologist funded as PI on NIH NIDDK R01, NSF SSTR, and co-I on 2 other R01s.

 Main research interests are genetics of erectile dysfunction, sperm genetics/epigenetics, microfluidic sperm sorting & male infertility & population health

FINANCIAL PROJECTIONS-MALE AND FEMALE MARKET

SUMMARY

- This is hard, harder than getting an NIH R01 grant
- Historically, this type of work had not been rewarded in academic medicine, this is changing...maybe?
- Fund raising is the engine that drives start ups
- The idea is far less crucial than the market and the team
